Periods of absence

Please indicate below any periods of sick leave, parental leave or unpaid leave relating to employment with employers covered by the SOK agreement. This applies to full-time or part-time absence exceeding two weeks during periods when you were employed by a SOK-affiliated employer.

Up to twelve months' sick leave may be included in the qualification period. This also applies to parental leave, up to nine months per child. The information must be supported by certificates. In the case of sick leave, a certificate from Försäkringskassan must be attached. In the case of parental leave or other unpaid leave, a certificate from your current or former employer must be attached.

Type of absence (sick leave, parental leave, leave of absence with transition study support from CSN and TRS, other unpaid leave)	From and incl.	To and incl.	Extent of absence (%)

Do you need more space for periods of absence in your application? Please attach a supplementary document.

I certify that I have stated all periods of absence relating to employment with employers covered by the SOK agreement.

If you have an idea of what you would like to transition to, please include your thoughts on this here. Otherwise, please leave the box blank. (Need more space? Attach a document to the application.)

I expect to start my active career change:

Your application must be sent to SOKstiftelsen no earlier than 8 months before and no later than 3 months before your active career change begins.

Other information:

All employers covered by the SOK agreement report monthly salary information for employees covered by the agreement. The employers covered by the agreement are listed on SOKstiftelsen's website. When processing your application, we use the information that employers have reported about you, both to SOKstiftelsen and, for periods before 2015, to SPV. The information you provide in your application is used to supplement and, where necessary, clarify this reporting. This information forms the basis for calculating your qualification period and the financial support you may be entitled to from SOKstiftelsen.

Information about SOKstiftelsen's processing of personal data.

In order to ensure the correct processing of your case, SOKstiftelsen must continuously process personal data.

Information:

- reported by the employer to SOKstiftelsen in accordance with collective agreements
- provided by you in your application to SOKstiftelsen
- provided by you later to SOKstiftelsen
- that is relevant to your case

SOKstiftelsen's decision on measures will be processed to the extent necessary for SOKstiftelsen to fulfil its obligations. In addition, SOKstiftelsen may need to collect supplementary information from others, such as SPV. Your personal data will not be disclosed to any other person or organisation except where there is a legal obligation to do so, or where cooperation takes place with another actor within the framework of SOKstiftelsen's measures. The data may, for example, be used to produce anonymised statistics for follow-up purposes. You may request that any incorrect data be corrected, erased or blocked. You also have the right, once a year, to request information about how your personal data is used. By submitting your application, you consent to the processing of personal data described above.
